Our Lady of the Holy Spirit Monastery is a member of the Cistercian Order of the Strict Observance, founded in 1098 at Citeaux, France. The 53 monks in our community have dedicated their lives to singing the praises of our Lord and praying for the world.

In addition to community prayer, the monks devote time to personal prayer and sacred reading. Silence, solitude and a simple way of life mark our daily lives. Also known as Trappists, the monks of Our Lady of the Holy Spirit have industries in fruitcake, stained glass, bonsai pottery, and our religious goods and bookstore. Our retreat house provides guests with a quiet atmosphere for prayer and reflection.

The life we live is one of service to God and humanity.

Brother Chaminade, OCSO
